Grace, Mercy, Forgiveness

Some of the sweetest words for any sinner to contemplate are “grace, mercy, and forgiveness.” These are a part of God’s divine nature and without these - “no man” can be saved from his sinful state. As King David would proclaim, “Against You (God), You only, have I sinned, and done this evil in Your sight...” Psalm 51:4. We all realize that others were impacted tremendously and there were severe consequences related to David’s sins, but this gets to the very “heart and root” of all sin. It is against God that man rebels and commits sin first and foremost. The darkness of sin separates us from our God (Is. 59:1-2). Sin left to its devices – without repentance on man’s part – without Grace, Mercy and Forgiveness on God’s – will separate man eternally from God. This is the second death (separation) mentioned in Rev. 20:6, 14.

Since “sin” is against God first and foremost “forgiveness” must come from God. This is not possible were it not for His Grace & Mercy. What do each of these words mean?

The word “Grace” is found 170 times in the KJV. In the Hebrew it is Chen - Khane : graciousness, that is, subjectively (kindness, favor) or objectively (beauty): - favour, grace (-ious), pleasant, precious, [well-] favoured. In the Greek it is Charis (khar'-ece; graciousness (as gratifying), of manner or act (abstract or concrete; literal, figurative or spiritual; especially the divine influence upon the heart, and its reflection in the life; including gratitude): - acceptable, benefit, favour, gift, grace (-ious), joy liberality, pleasure, thank (-s, -worthy).

The word “mercy” is found 271 times in the KJV. In the Hebrew it is chêsêd - kheh'-sed kindness; by implication (towards God) piety; rarely (by opprobrium) reproof, or (subjectively) beauty: - favour, good deed (-liness, -ness), kindly, (loving-) kindness, merciful (kindness), mercy, pity, reproach, wicked thing. In the Greek it is eleeō - el-eh-eh'-o; to be compassionate (by word or deed, specifically by divine grace): - have compassion (pity on), have (obtain, receive, shew) mercy (on).

The word “forgiveness” is found only once in the Old Testament although the principle is found throughout, it is in Psalm 130: 4 “But there is forgiveness with Thee (God), that Thou mayest be feared.” In the Hebrew it is s'lychâh - sel-ee-khaw'; pardon: - forgiveness, pardon. It is found five (5) more times in the Greek. The word is aphesis - af'-es-is; freedom; (figuratively) pardon: - deliverance, forgiveness, liberty, remission.

The amazing display of God’s divine nature is that by His Grace & Mercy man can find Forgiveness for sin!! But not only that - God allows the sinner the privilege to take on (transforming himself to and conforming himself to God’s divine nature) and actually display in our lives Grace, Mercy and Forgiveness to one another!!
