Procrastination

To procrastinate is to postpone action. Procrastination has surely robbed thousands of hours of productive labor. But procrastination is most lethal in spiritual matters. Especially when considering obedience the Gospel.

Example. The Bible gives us a classic example of one who procrastinated. We read in Acts 24:22-27 of a man named Felix. Felix was interested in hearing Paul proclaim to him the message of Christ. Paul spoke to him about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, and he thought very carefully about these things. In fact, the thought of them made him tremble with fear! (vs. 25). One would think that this man would obey the Lord and become a faithful servant of Jesus right away. This was not the case. Sadly, after hearing and trembling, Felix responded, “Go away for now; when I have a convenient time I will call for you.” How sad! How tragic! Felix made a decision which affected His eternal destiny; and he made the wrong decision. He decided to put off obedience to the Gospel.

Exhortation. As soon as we hear and believe, and are mature enough to understand the ramifications of our sins, we must obey the Gospel! That is, we must repent of our sins (Acts 2:38), confess our faith in the Lord (Romans 10:9-10), and be baptized to have our sins washed away (Acts 22:16). The Bible exhorts us to do this promptly. “Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation” (2 Corinthians 6:2). The Philippian Jailer was baptized in the “same hour of the night” (Acts 16:33). The verse uses the word “Immediately.” We don’t know when the Lord might return (1 Thessalonians 5:2).

Expiration. We live in a world where expiration dates are a big part of our lives. We have expiration dates on our milk, our bread, our medicines, etc. Most people see the need to use up what they have before it expires, or else they will have to incur a loss. Why can’t people see this same need when it comes to their souls? This is infinitely more urgent. We are not given our expiration date. No one knows when they will die. The foolish man in Luke 12:13-21 was preparing for a long prosperous life. He had no idea his life would expire that very night! (See also James 4:13-17). Don’t procrastinate, you may wait too late! ☞
