The Perfect Law of Liberty

James refers to “The perfect law of liberty” (James 1:25). Let’s consider this statement:

Sufficiency. The perfect law of liberty is the New Testament, the word of Christ, the doctrine of Christ. It doesn’t supply us with everything God knows, but it does give us everything we need to know about God and about how to worship and serve Him in a way that pleases Him. It is perfect, complete, all sufficient. Peter declared that God has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness (2 Peter 1:3), and Paul emphasized that all scripture makes the man of God complete and thoroughly equipped for every good work (2 Timothy 3:16-17). To turn to the councils, synods, conventions, modern day “prophets,” and and creed books of men is to deny that the law of liberty is perfect (Complete).

Statutes. A statute is a law. Many deny that the Gospel recorded in the New Testament is a law. They contend that obedience (works) isn't necessary for salvation. But James called the Gospel a law. Additionally, Paul referred to it as "The law of Christ" (Galatians 6:2). Paul also made it clear that the ones who would be punished with everlasting destruction would include those who "Do not obey the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" (2 Thess. 1:8-9). The writer of Hebrews emphasized that Christ is the author of eternal salvation to those who "Obey" Him (Hebrews 5:8-9). How could anyone deny that Christ's gospel is a law that must be obeyed?

Salvation. "Liberty" means freedom, deliverance, salvation! Many are and have been confused about the true meaning of liberty in Christ. Liberty is not license to sin. "Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Certainly not!" (Romans 6:1-2). If Christians want to finally be saved, they must work to overcome sin, not be servants to it. We are even commanded to lay aside that "Little sin" that so easily ensnares us (Hebrews 12:1-2). It is still true that the soul that sins shall die. The wages of sin is death for the Christian as well as for the non-christian (Romans 6:23). As Christians, we are to conduct ourselves in holy conduct and godliness (2 Peter 3:11). It is those who serve the Lord faithfully until death who will finally receive the crown of life – salvation (Revelation 2:10). ☺
