Our Mission

“To seek and save the lost” Luke 19:10

Our Objectives

“The perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ” Eph. 4:12

“Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:” Col. 1:28

What must I do to be saved?

Hear: Acts 15:7
Believe: Mark 16:15-16
Repent: Acts 17:30
Confess Christ: Rom 10:9-10
Be Baptized: Acts 2:38
Be Faithful II Pet. 1:5-11

Our Proposition

We will gladly give scriptural authority for everything we teach or practice. If anyone should show us, by the Scriptures that we need to make some change in our teaching or practices, we will do so immediately.

The Sower

“A Sower went out to sow his seed: and he sowed.” Luke 8:5

What's Your Motto?

A motto is a brief statement used to express a principle, a goal, or an ideal. It is the sum of what one stands for, and what his aspirations are.

“Be all you can be” is one of the mottos of the U.S. Army. This concept would work for a Christian, as God expects His children to put God first and work diligently in the kingdom (Matthew 6:33; Titus 2:14).

The U.S. Marines use the phrase “Semper Fi.” This is the Latin Semper Fidelis meaning “Always Faithful.” This too could apply to the Christian, as the Lord tells us to be faithful until death (Revelation 2:10).

If you were to choose a verse of scripture to stand as your motto as a christian, which would you choose? In reality, we should follow all of the Lord’s teachings without preferring one over the other. But I’ve always thought we would do well to emulate what Paul wrote in Galatians 2:20, “I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.”

The Truth Shall Make You Free

If we want to be true disciples of Jesus Christ, we must come to know His truth, and abide in it. If we want to understand the truths recorded in the Gospel, then we must truly devote ourselves to being His disciples.

“If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” –John 8:31-32

Freedom is a precious thing, but no freedom is more precious than the kind Jesus spoke of! Only His teachings can free us from the guilt and bondage of sin. When we obey the gospel, our sins are washed away by the precious blood of Christ (Acts 22:16; Revelation 1:5).

The truth also frees us from being servants of sin, as it instructs us in how to live holy and righteous before God.

The truth of the Gospel also frees us from religious error. Christ has set up preachers, teachers, and elders in the church to strengthen us in the knowledge of Jesus so that we’re not tossed to and from by every wind of false doctrine (Ephesians 4:11-14).
