14 Million Dollar Woman

The third most expensive piece of jewelry in the world is worth 14 million dollars. It is the 40 carat Heart-shaped Burma Ruby Necklace that is mounted in 155 carat worth of diamonds. The Bible says a godly woman is worth more than that ring! “Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies” (Prov. 31:10).

The godly woman is more valuable than all the jewelry in the world because of the contribution she makes to her family, society, and to the Lord’s church. “She opens her mouth with wisdom, and on her tongue is the law of kindness. She watches over the ways of her household, and does not eat the bread of idleness” (vv. 26, 27). The world is a better place for having her soft, gentle, godly, quiet, strong, uncompromising spirit. Her wisdom and kindness inspire those who know her to live a better life.

The same cannot be said of an immoral woman. Complimenting an ungodly woman is like placing diamonds on a pig — so inappropriate and unbecoming. Respect is reserved for the woman who is faithful to her husband, loyal to her family, upright in character and conduct; whose presence alone is a great contribution to the local church. Not so with the ungodly, unfaithful woman. The world is dark and empty when women act without virtue.

A godly woman helps her husband rise above his weaknesses, insecurities, and failures. “She does him good and not evil all the days of her life” (v. 12). She creates a home for her children that is a safe haven from the world because “strength and honor are her clothing” (v. 25). She shows the world what it means to walk with faith in Christ and conviction in His word because she “trusts in God” (1 Tim. 5:5).

Where would we be without women who take us aside and explain the way of God more accurately (Acts 18:26)? What hope would we have were it not for godly women who are “full of good works and charitable deeds” (Acts 9:36)? Thank God for godly women! Without their aid we would not have elders or deacons to serve in the Lord’s kingdom (1 Tim. 3:11). Without their genuine faith we would not have mothers and grandmothers who teach children the word of God (2 Tim. 3:15). Indeed, “Charm is deceitful and beauty is passing, but a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised” (Pro. 31:30). -

Proverbs 31:10, 25-31

“Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.” (Proverbs 31:10).

“Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.” (Prov. 31:25-31).
