What's Your Poison?

It's my understanding that this question, “What's your poison?” is often asked by bartenders in regards to what kind of drink the customer wants. In my estimation, alcohol is poison to drink, but let's consider this question from a spiritual standpoint. Sin is certainly the deadliest poison of all.

Some people's Poison Involves Social Sins. Drinking, fornication, immodesty, foul language, gossip, slander, lying, lewdness from dances, etc. All of these are sins which will condemn the soul, and interestingly, I've heard arguments over the years from various Christians striving to justify each of these respectively. Do not be deceived, those who practice these things are poisoning their souls, and they will not inherit the kingdom of heaven (Galatians 5:19-21; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11; Revelation 21:8; Romans 1:28-32; 1 Timothy 2:9-10).

Some people's Poison Involves Secret Sins. Some are deceiving themselves into thinking they can sin and no one will ever find out. Many times their sins are more evident than they realize. But even if they are successful in keeping those skeletons in the closet until they die, the Lord knows. He sees all. Nothing escapes His eyes. "The eyes of the Lord are in every place, Keeping watch on the evil and the good" (Proverbs 15:3). "There is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account" (Hebrews 4:13). Paul wrote of "The day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ..." (Romans 2:16). Yes, resurrection day will be a time when the bodies come out of the graves and the skeletons come out of the closets. "You have sinned against the Lord; and be sure your sin will find you out" (Numbers 32:23).

Some people's Poison Involves Slothful Sins. The problem with these folks is that they are just lazy. They have no intention of working for the Lord. They are repeatedly guilty of the sin of neglect (James 4:17). God has not called us to find a pew and sit, soak, and sour. Do-nothing Christianity did not originate in the mind of God. We have been created in Christ for good works (Ephesians 2:8-10), and we are to be zealous for good works (Titus 2:14), super-abounding in them (1 Corinthians 15:58). Those whose lives are full of good works are the ones who will inherit eternal life (Matthew 25:34-40, 46). Beware of spiritual poison!
