Fall Gospel Meeting!!

Today through Wednesday evening we will have the opportunity to grow in the grace and knowledge of Christ by feasting on the Bread of Life!!

These opportunities are relatively rare in comparison to so many aspects of our “ordinary” and somewhat “regular” lives.

As God’s people we not only should plan to be at each service, but be filled with joy and excitement at such times as these periods of worship and study granted to us.

Dick Blackford will be doing the speaking.

Regular Times Today

Be sure to be here early to welcome our visitors and to prepare our hearts!!

Monday – Wednesday

7:00 PM

Dear brethren, our Fall Gospel Meeting is here!!

Flyers (along with a personal note) have been sent to many of the local congregations to encourage good folks from all over Western Kentucky to be with us as we worship God and study from His most Holy Word!

Every member in attendance is the result of our commitment to these plans made over a year ago:

Sun. 9:30 AM “When Jesus Calmed the Storm”

Sun. 10:30 AM “Why Was Heaven So Happy?”

Sun. 6:00 PM “Not By Many”

Mon. 7:00 PM “Lessons From Philip”

Tues. 7:00 PM “Testing Our Convictions”

Wed. 7:00 PM “Zacchaeus”

Pray for these efforts and do your part to make this meeting successful!!

This is an opportunity to let your light shine and your influence be felt (Matt. 5:14, 16).

Will we have the attitude of Cornelius? “We are all here, to hear all that God commands” (Acts 10:24, 33). Do you know why his friends and kinsmen were there? Read Acts 10:2.

What does God Expect?”

First of all, there must be “powerful preaching.” This power is found in the message itself (Rom. 1:16; I Cor. 2:1-5). Pure Gospel preaching will be presented that convicts, converts and consecrates souls.

Secondly for success this week is “preparation.” Again the most important preparation to be made is to “prepare our hearts.” This requires open minds, bibles and schedules (Acts 17:11). What can you do? Bring your bible and a prepared heart to every service this week.

The third key to success is “perseverance.” Satan whispers, “It will not do any good, no one really cares.” “One person absent won’t really matter.” Will you listen to the Devil? This meeting will do good (I Thess. 5:11; Heb. 10:24). Your presence, your fervor, your involvement edifies and provokes “good” in others.

This meeting cannot be a success without “prayer.” Pray that this meeting will be a success (I Jn. 5:14-15).

Finally to be a successful meeting it will take “people.” (Lk 19:10). We must tell the lost the good news about Christ. This meeting is an opportunity to share the good news of Christ. Invite a friend to study.
