UPON THIS ROCK

Jesus asked for the results of an informal poll! He asked His disciples what the public thought was about Him, about His identity (Matt. 16:13). The apostles responded that people had various ideas about who Jesus was and then He asked them for their own opinion (v. 14). Peter, ever the spokesman for the group, expressed his belief about Jesus. "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Jesus promised to "build" His church upon this truth (Matt. 16:18).

Jesus did indeed establish His church through the work of the apostles on the Day of Pentecost just after His death and resurrection (Acts 2). Later, the evangelist Philip was directed by the Holy Spirit to "go near and over-take" the chariot of an Ethiopian government official who was returning from his worship in Jerusalem (Acts 8:26ff). Upon hearing the preaching of Philip, the eunuch asked, "What hinders me from being baptized?" (Acts 8:36).

Philip's response was that if the eunuch believed with all of his heart, he could be baptized. The confession then made by the eunuch clearly manifested his belief about Jesus: "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God." Our faith in this truth about the identity of Jesus is fundamental to our salvation and the confession that we make with our mouths is the natural expression of that faith.

The apostle Paul affirmed the necessity of belief and confession in order to enjoy salvation. "But what does it say? The Word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart (that is, the Word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation" (Rom. 10:8-10 NKJV).

Philip told the eunuch that belief was necessary before baptism and the eunuch responded by confessing Jesus as the Son of God. Paul wrote that we must believe in our hearts that God raised Jesus from the dead, but the eunuch said nothing concerning the resurrection of Jesus. Is there a contradiction between what the eunuch did and what Paul wrote is necessary?

The difference between the two passages can be understood by noting the connection between the deity of Jesus and His resurrection. To the Romans, Paul noted that Jesus was declared to be the Son of God with power through the resurrection of the dead (1:4). The resurrection was THE miracle, confirming the claim of Jesus to be the Son of God (e.g. Jno. 5:17; 10:30-33).

In Rom. 10, Paul put the "evidence" (i.e., the resurrection of Jesus) for the "conclusion" (i.e. Jesus is the Son of God). Those who believe that God raised Jesus from the dead are compelled to accept His deity. Jesus claimed to be deity and He must be...or God would not have confirmed His message by raising Him from the dead!
